

Press Release

Islamabad, December 14, 2012: Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (OGRA) has appointed Muhammad Afzal Bajwa, as Media Consultant to facilitate smooth flow of information mainly about the Authority's decisions and actions of larger public interest.

Bajwa brings well-over 20 years' experience of practical journalism to the OGRA. Before joining OGRA, he was heading very well known 'Online' news agency as the Editor.

Having expertise to deal with both the print and the electronic media, Bajwa as Consultant Media to OGRA is expected to maintain close liaison between his own community that are journalists and the Authority.

Bajwa was Chief Reporter The Nation until February 2011 when he left to lead as Editor the largest private sector news agency in Pakistan. Working with newspapers namely Business Recorder, Financial Post, and Frontier Post is also on his credit. He also offers his comments, frequently, to both the private and the state-owned electronic media on various issues chiefly the energy sector.
