

OGRA directed OMCs to build up their stocks of Petrol and Diesel up to minimum 20 days

Islamabad – The Oil & Gas Regulatory Authority has directed all the Oil Marketing Companies to build up their stocks of Petrol and Diesel owing to the start of harvesting season in the country.

It is pertinent to mention that adequate oil stock is available in the country however keeping in view the harvesting season, OMCs are advised to maintain and top up their stocks just as a precautionary measure to cater the demand of harvesting which is a routine practice.
