

OGRA — NEWS BRIEF

A daily news brief brought to you by Corporate and Media Affairs Department

November 1, 2021

OGRA RELATED NEWS

Oil Price Hike

PM Khan has finally put his foot down. Slam the brakes on skyrocketing oil prices, Islamabad says. Those decrying the petrol bomb for forcing million up against the wall may turn in their pots and pans for a while. But howsoever noble and righteous, intentions can only go so far. Islamabad's crusade to prioritise the plight of the masses could not be more spot-on!

<https://dailytimes.com.pk/835937/oil-price-hike/>

PM says 'no' to more fuel price hike

Prime Minister Imran Khan on Saturday turned down a proposal of the Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (Ogra) for increasing fuel prices from November 1.

<https://tribune.com.pk/story/2327051/pm-says-no-to-more-fuel-price-hike>

PM turns down proposal to hike petrol price by Rs11.53

Prime Minister Imran Khan Saturday turned down a proposal by the Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority and finance ministry for increasing the petrol price by Rs 11.53 per litre.

<https://dailytimes.com.pk/835613/pm-turns-down-proposal-to-hike-petrol-price-by-rs11-53/>

Petroleum prices to remain unchanged: Finance Ministry

ISLAMABAD, Oct 30 (APP): As per directions of the Prime Minister of Pakistan, the prices of various petroleum products will remain unchanged for next fortnight to provide relief to the masses, Finance Ministry said Saturday.

<https://www.app.com.pk/business/petrol-prices-to-remain-uncha>

PM rejects summary demanding more increase in fuel prices

ISLAMABAD - Prime Minister Imran Khan on Saturday decided not to increase the prices of petroleum products keeping in view the public interest. The Prime Minister rejected a proposal of OGRA and the Finance Ministry regarding increase in the petroleum prices in view of the public relief.

<https://hamariweb.com/enews/-pm-rejects-summary-demanding>

PM for no further hike in prices of POL products

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Imran Khan has rejected the Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (OGRA) and Finance Ministry's proposals to increase prices of petroleum products with effect from November 1.

<https://www.brecorder.com/news/40130221>

OGRA — NEWS BRIEF

A daily news brief brought to you by Corporate and Media Affairs Department

PM Imran Khan turns down proposal to increase petrol price

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Imran Khan on Saturday turned down Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (OGRA) proposal to increase the price of petroleum products from November 1.

<https://dailytimes.com.pk/835530/pm-imran-khan-turns-down-proposal-to-increase-petrol-price/>

PM rejects proposal for increase in prices of petroleum products

Prime Minister Imran Khan has decided not to increase the prices of petroleum products for the next fortnight keeping in view the public interest.

<https://www.pakistantoday.com.pk/2021/10/30/pm-rejects-proposal-for-increase-in-prices-of-petroleum-products/>

Govt Rejects Summary To Increase Petrol Price By Rs. 11.53

The prime minister has turned down an Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority summary seeking an increase in fuel prices by up to Rs11.53 per litre from November 1, a notification from PM House said Saturday.

<https://nation.com.pk/31-Oct-2021/govt-rejects-summary-to-increase-petrol-price-by-rs-11-53>

Govt to keep petroleum prices unchanged in 'public interest'

The government decided on Saturday to keep the prices of petroleum products unchanged in "public interest", according to a statement issued by the Finance Division.

<https://www.dawn.com/news/1654964>

Push to develop strategic reserves of POL products

The Cabinet Committee on Energy (CCoE) has directed the Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (Ogra) to conduct a pragmatic study to develop strategic reserves of petroleum products in the country to help Pakistan take benefit of a slump in oil prices globally.

<https://tribune.com.pk/story/2327031/push-to-develop-strategic-reserves-of-pol-products>

Govt to keep petroleum prices unchanged in 'public interest'

The government decided on Saturday to keep the prices of petroleum products unchanged in "public interest", according to a statement issued by the Finance Division.

<https://www.dawn.com/news/1654964>
