Petroleum price: PDC makes a comeback

The petroleum price for November 2021 got observers puzzled, as prices remained unchanged, despite the regulator's summary of substantial increase in both HSD and petrol. The government claimed it had decided to "absorb" the impact, but the notification on Ogra's website showed identical base price for petrol, with no change in PL and GST. Something had to give. What gave?

Integration of political and economic factors?

EDITORIAL: Political as opposed to economic compulsions of a sitting government are understood only by those who have been in government – a reality rudely brought home to Prime Minister Imran Khan after his 2018 electoral win.
