

December 14, 2021

OGRA RELATED NEWS

OGRA chief says govt alive to the issue of gas shortage

KARACHI: Masroor Khan, Chairman, Oil & Gas Regulatory Authority of Pakistan (OGRA) has explained that the government machinery is fully aware of the gas shortage issues being faced by the industrialists and the domestic consumers; and, the issues will be addressed through setting up 2 new LNG Terminals and increased number of LNG cargoes in the years to come.

<https://epaper.brecorder.com/2021/12/14/5-page/911310-news.html>

Industry questions OGRA chairman about gas shortages

President of the Federal Petroleum Corporation of Pakistan (FPCCI), Mian Nasser Hyatt Maggo, has welcomed the visit of Masroor Khan, Chairman of the Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority of Pakistan (OGRA), to the FPCCI Headquarters at Federation House in Karachi for a consultative session on the burning issue of increasing gas shortages for industry and end-users.

<https://dailytimes.com.pk/854747/industry-questions-ogra-chairman-about-gas-shortages/>

Industrialists question chairman OGRA over gas shortages

KARACHI: Federation of Pakistan Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FPCCI) President Mian Nasser Hyatt Maggo termed gas supply shortages and disruptions a matter of survival for industry, with repercussions for the country's foreign exchange reserves.

<https://www.thenews.com.pk/print/916554-industrialists-question-chairman-ogra-over-gas-shortages>

New terminals, more LNG cargoes to address crisis: OGRA

KARACHI: Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (OGRA) chairman Masroor Khan on Monday said that setting up of two liquefied natural gas (LNG) terminals and increasing the number of cargoes in next few years would help address the issue of gas shortage in the country.

<https://www.dawn.com/news/1663735>
