

August 31, 2021

OGRA RELATED NEWS

POL products: Ogra works out 'substantial' decrease in prices

ISLAMABAD: The Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (Ogra) Monday worked out a substantial decrease in the prices of petroleum products with effect from September 1, owing to a declining trend in oil prices globally.

<https://www.brecorder.com/news/40116908/pol-products-ogra-works-out-substantial-decrease-in-prices>

Prices of petroleum products likely to be cut by up to Rs5

ISLAMABAD: The government is likely to reduce prices of petroleum products from the first of September, ARY News reported, citing sources.

<https://arynews.tv/prices-of-petroleum-products-likely-to-be-cut-by-up-to-rs5/>

Reduction in petrol, high speed diesel prices likely

ISLAMABAD: The prices of petroleum products may go down by up to Rs5 per litre for the next fortnight if the calculations of the Oil & Gas Regulatory Authority (Ogra) are accepted by the government.

<https://www.dawn.com/news/1643645>

Fuel prices likely to go down by up to Rs5 per litre

Consumers may get some relief as the petroleum division has recommend a reduction in prices of fuel by up to Rs5 per litre, sources privy to the development told The Express Tribune on Monday.

<https://tribune.com.pk/story/2317784/fuel-prices-likely-to-go-down-by-up-to-rs5-per-litre>
