KE reluctant to buy expensive RLNG for PLL

ISLAMABAD: Karachi Electric (KE) has expressed reluctance to purchase expensive spot-priced re-gasified liquefied natural gas (RLNG) from Pakistan LNG Limited (PLL), saying that any inequality in the RLNG pricing for PLL's supply to KE as compared to the other power plants in the country should be avoided.

OMCs may cut high-priced diesel cargoes amid cash crunch

KARACHI: The country is likely to face diesel shortages in the weeks ahead as most oil marketing companies (OMCs) are reluctant to import big cargoes on government's lack of funds to pay for subsidies after global prices went into chaotic overdrive, industry officials said on Thursday.
