3 illegal oil agencies were unearthed by OGRA's enforcement team

OGRA takes action against sale of sub-standard oil and less filling in Southern Punjab

Islamabad - OGRA Enforcement (North) team inspected Petrol Pumps in southern region of Punjab province to check accurate measurements of oil, quality & price and ensure safety standards at different outlets. About 40 petrol pumps of different Oil Marketing Companies have been inspected, samples of petrol and diesel were sent to laboratory for quality check. Show Cause Notices to be issued to the violators along with penalties as per law. 3 Illegal oil agencies were also found against whom appropriate action has been recommended to the Chief Secretary Punjab. This process shall be extended throughout Pakistan.

OGRA has adopted no tolerance policy on the accuracy of measurement, quality and safety at outlets. The action was taken on the grievances of general public.

The teams have also been directed to visit other areas of province to ensure supply of petroleum products with accuracy, quality and sale of oil on prescribed rates.
