RLNG price slashed by up to 20.6%

OGRA reduces consumer price for July

OUR CORRESPONDENT
ISLAMABAD

The Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (Ogra) on Friday slashed the price of imported liquefied natural gas by up to 20.57% for the consumers of Sui Southern Gas Company (SSGC) and Sui Northern Gas Pipelines Limited (SNGPL).

According to a notification issued by Ogra, for the month of July, the price of re-gasified LNG for SSGC consumers has been reduced by $4.6501 per million British thermal units (mmbtu) while for SNGPL consumers the price has been reduced by $3.3088 per mmbtu.

The regulator slashed the weighted average sale price of RLNG by 20.57% for the distribution network of SSGC. After the reduction, the price of RLNG will go down to $17.9575 per mmbtu for July from $22.6076 per mmbtu during June.

Similarly, the weighted average gas sale price for the SNGPL distribution network has decreased by 15.93%. With the reduction, the rate of RLNG will come down to $17.4603 per mmbtu for July from the June price of $20.7691 per mmbtu.

Eight LNG cargoes are being imported in July by PSO under two long-term contracts with Qatar.

Oil consumption declines

ISLAMABAD: The country's consumption of two key petroleum products, Petroleum Motor Gasoline (PMG) or petrol and HSD, has declined by 21 per cent and 44 per cent, respectively due to measures taken by the government to curtail imports and massive increase in their prices by the incumbent government
