OGRA conducted a webinar on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

Islamabad - The Oil and Gas Regulatory Authority (OGRA) conducted Webinar themed 'Prosperous Pakistan and Sustainable Development-The Way Forward' on 24th November, 2022. The webinar was held through an online virtual platform (Zoom application). The Webinar aimed to provide a distinctive opportunity for leaders across industries with instrumental insights to leadership, vision, strategy and changing corporate social responsibility needs. The forum deliberated over the present and future challenges in the fast changing business environment and fulfilling the expectations of various stake holders. Specially, the concerns from and for customers, workforce, stakeholders, communities, and governments, as well as our resources, climate and a demand for transparent and socially-responsible practices and initiatives within organizations came under discussion.

The Webinar was hosted by OGRA and Chairman OGRA -Mr. Masroor Khan welcomed the distinguished guest speakers amongst the industry and public sector.

Chairman NEPRA Mr. Tauseef H. Farooqi elaborated the CSR system and it's practices in Pakistan. In addition to this, senior management of Sui companies, Shell Pakistan, PSO, Mari Petroleum, Total Parco, Attock Refinery, PPL and Indus Foundation participated and conversed their CSR practices which were linked to Environmental, Health, Social and basic economic and infrastructure practices, which influence the sustainability of Business and Society as an integrated system.

Chairman OGRA-Mr. Masroor Khan while concluding the webinar informed the participants that this CSR webinar is all about building new partnerships and relationships with valued stakeholders for better human resources, environmental cleanliness, sustainability, academicians and basic economic and infrastructure development in the local areas.

He thanked participants for making this event successful and hoped that such initiatives will perpetually be sustained with the help of stakeholders.
